A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-7, 9-11, 13, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gotou (US Patent 7,085,629).

4. With respect to claim 1, Gotou discloses an electronic mail device comprising:

5. With respect to claim 2, Gotou discloses an electronic mail device according to claim 1, wherein the keyword extraction unit extracts, as a keyword, information about an existing area of a sender or about a pre-registered recipient (Gotou: Column 10, lines 55-67; Column 11, lines 16-26; Figure 4B; Figure 9; Figure 12).

6. With respect to claim 4, Gotou discloses an electronic mail device according to claim 1, further comprising an additional information selection unit accepting, in a case where the search unit has searched for plural pieces of additional information, a selection of the information, which is actually added, from the plural pieces of additional information (Gotou: Column 2, lines 11-21; Column 3, lines 2-67; Column 7, lines 11-28; Figure 12).

7. With respect to claim 5, Gotou discloses an electronic mail device according to any one of claims 1 through 4, wherein when receiving the electronic mail from a source terminal and transmitting the mail to a destination terminal, the additional information is added to the electronic mail (Gotou: Column 2, lines 3-21; Figures 4A-4C and 12).

adding the searched additional information to the electronic mail as the processing object (Gotou: Column 2, lines 14-20; Column 5, lines 36-53; Column 7, lines 10-28; Figure 4A; Figure 12).

9. With respect to claim 7, Gotou discloses a recording medium recorded with an information adding program for an electronic mail according to claim 6, wherein the step of obtaining the keyword involves extracting, as a keyword, information about an existing area of a sender or about a pre-registered recipient (Gotou: Column 10, lines 55-67; Column 11, lines 16-26; Figure 4B; Figure 9; Figure 12).

10. With respect to claim 9, Gotou discloses a recording medium recorded with an information adding program for an electronic mail according to claim 6, further comprising a step of accepting, in the case of having searched for plural pieces of additional information in the step of searching for the additional information, a selection of the information, which is actually added, from the plural pieces of additional information (Gotou: Column 2, lines 11-21; Column 3, lines 2-67; Column 7, lines 11-28; Figure 12).

11. With respect to claim 10, Gotou discloses an information adding method for an electronic mail, by which an electronic mail device executes steps of:

accepting an input of an electronic mail as a processing object (Gotou: Column 2, lines 11-12; Figure 4A; Figure 12);

obtaining a keyword from the electronic mail (Gotou: Column 2, lines 12-14; Column 6, lines 59-67; Figure 4A; Figure 12);

adding the searched additional information to the electronic mail as the processing object (Gotou: Column 2, lines 14-20; Column 5, lines 36-53; Column 7, lines 10-28; Figure 4A; Figure 12).

12. With respect to claim 11, Gotou discloses an information adding method for an electronic mail according to claim 10, wherein the step of obtaining the keyword involves extracting, as a keyword, information about an existing area of a sender or about a pre-registered recipient (Gotou: Column 10, lines 55-67; Column 11, lines 16-26; Figure 4B; Figure 9; Figure 12).

13. With respect to claim 13, Gotou discloses an information adding method for an electronic mail according to claim 10, further comprising a step of accepting, in the case of having searched for plural pieces of additional information in the step of searching for the additional information, a selection of the information, which is actually added, from the plural pieces of additional information (Gotou: Column 2, lines 11-21; Column 3, lines 2-67; Column 7, lines 11-28; Figure 12).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

15. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

16. Claims 3, 8, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gotou (US Patent 7,085,629) as applied to claims 1, 2, 4-7, 9-11, 13, and 14 in the 35 U.S.C. 102(e) rejection above, in view of Rast (US Publication 2001/0034769).

17. With respect to claim 3, Gotou discloses an electronic mail device according to claim 1, Gotou does not explicitly teach, extracting a date and time recorded in relative time since a date and time of transmission, an absolute date and time obtained from the present date and time, or the present date and time.

However, Rast discloses claimed extracting a date and time recorded in relative time since a date and time of transmission, an absolute date and time obtained from the present date and time, or the present date and time (Rast: Paragraph 10, lines 6-9; Figure 2).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to combine the teachings of Gotou and Rast to have the keyword extraction unit extracting a date and time for the benefit of providing the delivery of email messages at a specified time (Rast: Paragraph 23, lines 1-2).

18. With respect to claim 8, Gotou in view of Rast discloses a recording medium recorded with an information adding program for an electronic mail according to claim 6, wherein the step of obtaining the keyword involves extracting, as a keyword, a date and time recorded in relative time since a date and time of transmission, an absolute date and time obtained from the present date and time, or the present date and time (Rast: Paragraph 10, lines 6-9; Figure 2).

19. With respect to claim 12, Gotou discloses an information adding method for an electronic mail according to claim 10, wherein the step of obtaining the keyword involves extracting, as a keyword, a date and time recorded in relative time since a date and time of transmission, an absolute date and time obtained from the present date and time, or the present date and time (Rast: Paragraph 10, lines 6-9; Figure 2).

Conclusion

20. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Ilcisin reference (US Publication 2002/0044067) teaches about message delivery based on geographical and temporal parameters. The Tuvey reference (US Publication 2002/0019849) teaches about an information communication system. The Yamamoto reference (US Publication 2005/0165739) teaches about extracting words from mail documents that correspond to the user's interest.
